

Rules and Regulations Pertaining to the Regional Health Information Organization and Health Information Exchange [R5-37.7-HIE]

Patient's Rights. Pursuant to the Act and these Regulations, a patient participant who has his or her confidential health information transferred through the HIE shall have the following rights:

- (a) To obtain a copy of his/her confidential health information from the HIE;
- (b) To designate which provider participant(s) are authorized to access his/her health care information through the HIE;
- (c) To obtain a copy of the disclosure report pertaining to his or her confidential health information;
- (d) To be notified, as required by RIGL §11-49.2 [Rhode Island Identity Theft Protection Act], of a breach of the security system of the HIE;
- (e)
 - (1) To terminate his or her participation in the HIE at any time in accordance with the Act and these Regulations by signing a revocation form in accordance with the revocation policy established by the RHIO and annually approved by the Director;
 - (2) Upon a patient's termination from the HIE, his/her data shall not be accessed by a provider participant for any purpose, including clinical care; and
- (f) To request to amend his or her own information through the provider participant.